THE WEATHER.

The daily record of the thermometer in this city is reported by A. T. Playter, druggist, corner Main and First streets. The record for yesterday was: 7 a. m., 12 degrees above; 12 m., 40 degrees above; 4 p. m., 48 degrees above; 8 p. m., 32 degrees above.

ABOUT THE CITY.

Robert Haslop of Butte is in the city. Jake Lowenthal returned from Butte yesterday.

Mose Silverman and John Tooley were over from Butte yesterday.

Druggist A. T. Playter returned from a business trip to Butte last night.

Ex-Fire Marshal L. P. Smith of Butte came over to this city last evening.

C. T. M. Tingling, of the Northern Pacific, was at the Montana yesterday.

H. Albertson of Butte, one of the proprietors of the Combination gambling house there, and his brother, P. Albertson, recently from Germany, are in the city visiting Barney McKinley.

The warm sun of the last few days causes a great deal of slush on the streets and pedestrianism is quite difficult, especially in the business part of the city. The roads are bare in spots and the sleighing is rapidly getting poorer.

The stray dogs that have been imprisoned at the pound for the past three days are to be killed at 10 o'clock this morning. Those desiring animals which they have lost are requested to see Chief Hale at the pound before 10 o'clock.

The telephone and electric light wires became crossed in front of the Union block about 7 o'clock last night, burning out several telephone boxes along the circuit. The trouble was soon located by Electrician Bullock, who speedily remedied the difficulty.

St. Mark's Episcopal church, Upper Main street, to-morrow's services: Fifth Sunday in Lent. Morning prayer, litany and sermon, 11 o'clock; evening prayer and lecture, 7:30; Sunday school, 2:30; Bible study for workmen at 3:30. All are cordially invited. Seats free. J. C. Quinn, Rector.

Among yesterday's arrivals at the Montana were: C. A. Daigh, St. Paul; Bert Ford, Minneapolis; W. L. Church, St. Paul; T. J. Brett, Chicago; T. E. Butler, Butte; J. A. Todd, Chicago; D. J. Hanna, St. Paul; Jacob B. Cohn, Baltimore, Md.; R. R. Sterling, Boston; J. Ackerman, Butte; H. L. Schermerhorn, Chicago.

The carpenters will commence work at the Montana to-day preparing the new postoffice for occupancy. It is probable that everything will be in readiness for the removal of the office into its new quarters about the middle of next week. When completed the new office will be a model in all its appointments.

Ben Falk, proprietor of the Anaconda meat market on First street yesterday hung out a fine lot of dressed steers which attracted no little attention during the day. The steers were shipped here from Linneman and Schmidt's ranch at Camas, Idaho, and comprise some of the finest ever shipped to Montana, weighing 1,000 to 1,200 pounds each.

The dog race at Deer Lodge to-day will attract many sports from this city. John Doner will take over John Williams' Gray Eagle and will probably make a race for him. The Montana Sneak, Dave Lewis' dog, will doubtless also be taken over by Ed Dwyer. The boys from here will go prepared to back their dogs against either the Butte or Deer Lodge animals and an interesting series of races is anticipated.

Ready for More Scraps.

The Anaconda chicken fighters are becoming anxious for some more sport, not particularly with the Butte chicken fanciers, but with Helena, Missoula, Deer Lodge or any other city that has a few first class game cocks in fighting trim. The recent defeat of the Butte sports in this city in one of the largest cocking mains ever held in the state seems to have completely knocked them out. Considerable money changed hands on that occasion and several valuable cocks were killed, which it will take a long time to replace.

FOR BLOOD AND POINTS

Butts and Strader Agree to Spar for $150 a Side.

ALL THE DETAILS ARRANGED

They Will Have Ten Rounds at Each Other at Anaconda on March 22—Articles of Agreement.

Articles of agreement were signed last night by J. B. Strader and Billy Butts for a 10-round sparring contest, to take place at the Anaconda park on March 22. J. B. Strader will be remembered as the man who wrestled little Joe Burns at Butte about ten days ago, when Burns threw him twice in less than three minutes. Strader has been in this city for several months and has a band of horses a few miles out. He claims to be both a pugilist and wrestler, and has frequently endeavored to get a match on in this city. Billy Butts arrived in town from Butte a few days ago. He hails from Bay City, Mich. Butts is a bartender by profession and has worked one or two shifts in George O'Reilly's saloon. He claims to be a better pugilist than bartender, and since his arrival here has been trying to make a match. His efforts resulted in fruit last night. The match is for $150 a side and will probably be an interesting contest as both men are of about the same weight.

Butts weighs 165 pounds which he proposes to reduce to about 155 while training during the next six days. Strader weighs 175 pounds at present. The match will probably take place in the pavilion at the park, the winner taking all of the gate receipts. The articles of agreement are given below:

ANACONDA, Montana, March 13, 1903.
 Articles of agreement between J. B. Strader of Anaconda, Mont., and Billy Butts of Bay City, Mich.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to spar 10 rounds for the sum of $150 a side at the Anaconda park, in the county of Deer Lodge, state of Montana, on the 22nd day of March, 1903. Said contest to be decided by a referee to be chosen at the ringside, who is agreeable to both parties. We also stipulate that four-ounce gloves are to be used, and that the referee's decision shall be final, the stakes to go to the person who is declared the winner. Also that we are to fight at catch weight. It is further agreed that if either party does not appear at the above named place on the date specified that the forfeit money shall go to the person who does appear. Winner to take all of the gate receipts. P. J. Maloney is the stakeholder.

AT THE THEATER.

A Round of Attractions Promised Next Week.

The New York Herald in speaking of the presentation of "Carmen" by Corinne says: "Corinne has been star from babyhood, but never has she so thoroughly established her title of 'Queen of the Stage' as in her new opera burlesque, 'Carmen.' It gives her wide scope for the display of her exceptional abilities and she utilized it, and has grasped the opportunity of her life with a firm hand, and will make rapid strides to success in her new character of Carmencita. As a travesty upon Bizet's musical tragedy it is sufficiently like and unlike the original to be taking and pleasing to the audience. It follows the story to the close, but instead of finishing the lovers before the circus tent, as does Bizet, it carries them into the amphitheater and unites them after a real bull fight, with a dancing bull, toreros, picadores and hobby horses. The little star availed herself of every opportunity to introduce songs and dances, and even charmed the audience and won a most persistent recall. Her costumes were elegant and effective. The other members of the cast were equal to all the requirements of their several parts and acquitted themselves in all things creditably. The audience was large and demonstrative, insisting upon a number of repetitions. Mr. Bernard Dillyn, the Torador, has a rich baritone voice of considerable volume, and was repeatedly encored." Corinne will be at Evans opera house next Wednesday night.

John Dillon, the famous comedian, who will be seen at Evans opera house next Thursday evening, loses nothing by age. His wit is as keen as ever, his actions as lively as in days of yore. The same fire fills his veins, and because of the fun he fills the people like to hear him. To hear Dillon is a treat. One enjoys a performance in which he figures and leaves the theatre at its finish satisfied that he has had enough for his money, that he would have paid more and still be contented with the expenditure.

Of the Boston Comic Opera company which will be the attraction at Evans opera house next Friday and Saturday evenings, the Portland Evening Telegram says: "The Boston Opera company opened a three nights' engagement last evening at the Park theater to a jammed house, and gave a very clean performance of Audran's favorite comic opera 'The Mascot.' The company is a good one and sure to meet with great success."

FOR ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

There Will be a Parade in the Morning and a Dance in the Evening.

The A. O. of H. have made arrangements for observing St. Patrick's day, the 17 of March—in an appropriate manner. In the morning the members of the A. O. of H. and the Wolfe Tone Guards and perhaps other civic organizations will march from Standard hall to the Catholic church, where Father De Siero will officiate at high mass and preach a sermon. After the conclusion of the services, the march will be continued through the principal streets of the city. In the evening a ball will be given at Evans hall where a charming dancing party will wind up the day's celebration. Excellent music has been secured for the occasion and every arrangement made for the entertainment of their guests.

The committee on reception consists of the following well known gentlemen: Judge T. D. Fitzgerald, D. Shorlin, E. Dwyer, John S. Dougherty, Mike Morley, John W. White, Con. Connors, Peter Hale, P. Sugrue, P. J. Gordon, Colonel T. O'Leary, Jerry Harrington, Tom Murray, Joseph Peters, Patrick McHugh, Owen O'Neill, John Burke, Dan Conley. Floor managers, James Nolan, D. Leary, Dan Conley.

Liebig International Surgical Institute.

The surgeon of above institute in San Francisco and Kansas City will visit Missoula, March 13 and 14, office, room 4, Hotel Florence; at Moore hotel, Granite, March 16 and 17; at Keiser hotel, Phillipsburg, March 17 and 18; at McBurney house, Deer Lodge, March 19; at the Montana, Anaconda, March 20 and 21; at Dillon, March 22, for the purpose of arranging with all desiring treatment or appliances for deformities. Measurements made for braces and surgical apparatus.

JUST LIKE A MAN.

A Lady Who Had Her Shoes "Shined" on a Public Street.

The other morning, about 10 o'clock, a well-dressed lady—evidently from the country—was seen walking leisurely up Fourth street, in St. Louis, looking about as if in search of something. Near the curb in front of the Metropolitan restaurant was an empty chair. As soon as the lady saw this her eyes twinkled and her mouth broadened into a very perceptible smile. She made a bee-line for the chair and sat down. This was not all she wanted, for she began to cast quick glances in several directions. Her eye at last caught sight of some small urchins playing in front of the Globe-Democrat office.

"Say, boy! Come here! I want you," shouted the lady, in a high key. The kids made a scamper for the caller and the first one that reached her was told that she wanted him to shine her shoes.

"All right, boss, put up your hoof," exclaimed the shiner, forgetting the sex of his customer. The sight of a woman seated in a chair on the outer edge of the walk having her shoes polished, was a novelty to the St. Louis male population, and crowds began to gather at points not far distant. The lady paid no attention to the watchers, and appeared as unconcerned as if it was an every day occurrence with her, but it was fun for the unoccupied bootblacks.

"Hey, dere, Jimmie! have you joined the woman suffragists?" shouted a diminutive American with a box under his arm. "Look out, dere, you'll hit de stockin' off de lady." "Say, Jimmie! let me come hold up the dress while you shine." "The top o' de shoe is not de place to shine; don't you know any better?" "Dat's a Chicago woman. I can tell it from her feet." These, and many other remarks, were heard, but the lady paid no attention, and after the boy was through she gave him a dime and walked into the restaurant to eat her breakfast.
